Pumpkins are a fun part of fall. You can carve them, display them or you can even make them part of a flavors of fall feast. If you cook a whole pumpkin you can eat the seeds and use the flesh for baking.

MARINA DI
CHIOGGIA

78¢
Lb.

This heirloom hails from Chioggia on the coast of Italy. The large turban-shaped fruits are very rubbly and a deep blue-green. The flesh is sweet and ideal in pies.

CINDERELLA
PUMPKINS

Brilliant orange, these pumpkins remind us of the famous fairytale pumpkin that is magically transformed into a horse-drawn gilded coach. This grand pumpkin is the favorite of many a chef for its savory mystical and magical culinary powers it can create in the kitchen.

PUMPKIN PIE SPICED ALMONDS

Did you know that the bulk section at Leon's is constantly updating and changing its offerings based on the season? It's true! While we strive to have the consistent offerings that our customers are looking for each day, we are very excited when our seasonal goodies come in for the next holiday or season.

Today we are highlighting one of our most popular seasonal treats, PUMPKIN PIE SPICED ALMONDS! This customer favorite is full of classic pumpkin pie ingredients like Cinnamon, Ginger, Nutmeg and Cloves all wrapped around a fresh roasted almond.

These Pumpkin Pie Almonds provide the quintessential fall snacking experience and are perfect when given as a small gift, brought to fall gatherings or simply to enjoy... so don't wait to fill your pumpkin spice craving!

CASTELLO
GOUDA

7 oz.

With powerful peach and citrus notes, Riesling is a delightful wine that pairs perfectly with creaminess and nutty flavors of the gouda. This harvest wine's subtle sweetness and light body also counters the saltiness of the cheese, creating a pleasing contrast.
