SWEDISH SAUSAGE SECRET RECIPE

Did you know that the SWEDISH POTATO SAUSAGE that we sell every year in our famous meat department is "made from scratch" right here at Leon's? In fact, Leon himself developed the recipe that we still use today, over 70 years ago.

In a bizarre twist to the story the recipe was actually LOST when the last of Leon's original butchers, who had been making the homemade sausage every week for years, passed away. No one had written it down!

The recipe was uncovered two years later by chance when the old store safe was being relocated. During the move a hidden compartment was discovered and inside it was a small packet where all the tried and true secret store recipes were written down.

Since that day, the famous Leon's SWEDISH POTATO SAUSAGE has been made from scratch the way it was always intended to be, and sold in our meat department. It is just another one of those reasons why... some days being average is just not good enough, that's when you come to
