Grilled Ribeye Steak

Ingredients

1 ribeye steak (about 1-1.5 inches thick)
1-2 tbsp olive oil (or your favorite cooking oil)
2-3 garlic cloves (crushed or minced)
1-2 tsp fresh rosemary or thyme (optional)
Salt (preferably kosher or sea salt)
Freshly ground black pepper
Optional: Butter (for finishing)

Directions

Take your ribeye steak out of the refrigerator about 30-60 minutes before grilling to bring it to room temperature. This helps the steak cook evenly. Pat the steak dry with a paper towel to remove excess moisture. This will help get a nice sear.

Drizzle olive oil on both sides of the steak. Generously season both sides with salt and pepper. You can also add some crushed garlic or herbs (like rosemary or thyme) at this point for added flavor.

Preheat your grill to high heat (around 450-500°F). If you're using a gas grill, make sure to clean the grates and lightly oil them to prevent sticking.

Place the steak on the grill and cook for about 4-5 minutes on each side for medium-rare, depending on thickness. Adjust the time for your desired level of doneness (longer for medium, medium-well, etc.).

If you have a meat thermometer, aim for 130-135°F for medium-rare, 140-145°F for medium, and 150-155°F for medium-well.

For a rich finish, you can add a pat of butter on top of the steak during the last minute of grilling. The butter will melt and enhance the flavor.

Once done, remove the steak from the grill and let it rest on a plate for about 5-10 minutes. This allows the juices to redistribute, making for a juicy steak.

Blackberry Pie

Ingredients

- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter cut into small pieces
- 1/4 cup plain yogurt
- 4 cups blackberries
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg

Directions

In a large bowl, combine flour, lemon peel, and salt. Mix well. Add butter, flour mixture and mix until coarse crumbs form. Add yogurt, and mix until a soft dough forms. Shape dough into a ball and gently flatten. Wrap dough in plastic wrap and chill for 30 minutes.

As dough is chilling, prepare the filling. In a large bowl, combine blackberries, sugar, quick cooking tapioca and ground nutmeg. Stir together well.

Preheat oven to 375 degrees F.

On a lightly floured surface, using a lightly floured rolling pin, roll dough into an 11-inch circle. Spoon filling into pie pan and fit the dough over top. Trim excess dough, leaving a 1-inch overhang; crimp edges. Cut steam vents.

Bake for 30-40 minutes. (Pie top should golden brown and filling bubbles)

Place pie plate on cooling rack and cool completely.

Enjoy!
